Researching Clerkships

Find Clerkship Job Listings

Did you know? Not every clerkship opportunity is posted on OSCAR. Broaden your search and expand your field of opportunity.

You can also find job postings for federal clerkships through
- U.S. Courts Careers
- U.S. Tax Court
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Armed Services
- Administrative Law Judges

You don’t have to stop at federal courts! Clerkships are also available with
- State Judges
- International Tribunals and Foreign Courts
- International Court of Justice

Customize Your Application and Prepare for Your Interview

Did you know? You have access to many different resources with professional and personal information about judges all over the country. Use this information to tailor your cover letter to your judge, and to thoughtfully engage in your interview process.

These two directories are invaluable to clerkship hopefuls:
- Almanac of the Federal Judiciary
  - Includes evaluations of judges’ personalities, courtroom tendencies, and other inside information from lawyers in the know.
  - Noteworthy Rulings highlights cases that got media attention or were eventually decided by SCOTUS.
- MLaw OCP’s Judicial Clerkship Database
  - Includes actual feedback on judges across the country written by Michigan Law grads.
  - Learn from those who have gone through this exact process of interviews, and who have worked closely with judges in chambers.

Bloomberg Law, Lexis Advance, and Westlaw Edge all offer judge profiles, courtroom analytics, and other useful info.
